All of which is respectfully submitted.

CHAIRMAN FINANCE COM.

Mr. J. W. Pickett was engaged to write up the assessment roll at a salary of $40.

Mr. McCarthy gave notice that he would introduce a motion to repeal a resolution dealing with the ferry license fee to be reduced to the sum of $40.

The Board of works report submitted and adopted, recommending that the clerk be authorized to write to Mr. W. A. Shaw informing him regretting being unable to comply with his request in the matter of a sidewalk from C.P.R. station to Chipman st., also that the clerk advise the residents of Silver street who have petitioned for sidewalk, that at present the committee have no funds at their disposal for the work.

We would also recommend that J. E. Alcock's wages be fixed at $2.25 per day dating from February 1st as water works and street foreman.

What might have proven a fatal accident was narrowly averted at Norman about 7 o'clock Sunday evening, and as it was Rev. Robt. Nairn received somewhat severe injuries.

Mr. Nairn was walking along the railway track with Mr. Wm. Greenwood towards church, when they heard the approach of a train from the east. Mr. Greenwood stepped off the track, but Mr. Nairn, being in a hurry to reach the place of worship, proceeded some distance ahead and, when the train had about overtaken him, stepped, as he thought, clear of the track. Unfortunately he did not get on the size of the cylinder on the big engine and it struck him on the shoulder. He was pitched some distance and alighted on his head.

Mr. Greenwood and others rushed to his assistance and found that he had sustained a nasty cut over one eye, a severe abrasion of the skin on his face and a general shaking up.

Mr. Nairn was conveyed as quickly as possible to his residence on the Rideout Estate. Dr. Scott was summoned and dressed his wounds. The Rev. gentleman is doing as well as can be expected under the circumstances, but he will be confined to his home for some time.

MIGHT HAVE BEEN FATAL

Washington, April 12.—Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, the noted Presbyterian divine, died at 9 o'clock tonight at his residence in this city. It has been evident for some days that there was no hope of his recovery and the attending physicians so informed the family. The patient gradually grew weaker until life passed away so quietly that even the members of the family, all of whom were watching at the bedside, hardly knew all was over. The immediate cause of death was inflammation of the brain. Dr. Talmage was in poor health when he started away from Washington for Mexico for a vacation and rest six weeks ago. He was then suffering from influenza and serious catarrh conditions. Since his return to Washington, some time ago, he has been quite ill. Until Thursday, however, fears of his death were not entertained. The last rational words uttered by him were on the day preceding the marriage of his daughter, when he said: "Of course, I know you Maud." Since then he has been unconscious.

At Dr. Talmage's bedside besides his wife were the members of his family, Rev. Frank DeWitt Talmage, Chicago; Mrs. Warren G. Smith, Brooklyn; Mrs. Daniel Mannagan, Brooklyn; Mrs. Allan E. Donnan, Richmond; Mrs. Clarence Wyckoff and Miss Talmage, Washington.

Washington, April 13.—Arrangements were completed today for the funeral services in this city over the body of Dr. T. DeWitt Talmage. The funeral will take place at 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon from the Church of the Covenant, and the services will be very simple. There will be no funeral sermon, but short addresses concerning the life and work of Dr. Talmage will be made by men who have been intimately associated with him. Silent tribute to the memory of Dr. Talmage was paid today by thousands of people who walked past the residence on Mass avenue, where the visit of death was marked by a cluster of violets tied with a streamer of black hanging at the right of the entrance.

McCROSSAN BANQUETTED

A Successful Affair at the Russell House Last Night.

One of the most successful banquets ever tendered to a private citizen was given last night at the Russell House to Mr. J. A. McCrossan, who leaves on Thursday to take an important position in the Lardian district, British Columbia. It was attended by a number of the prominent business men of the town and was a distinct mark of esteem and regret at the departure of a citizen who has for about 11 years been prominently connected with Rat Portage.

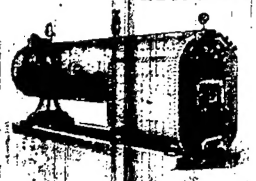

At no banquet ever held in Rat Portage have the tables presented a more or more delicate appearance. The edibles were the choicest and most tempting it was possible to secure. There seemed to be nothing missing and the service gave evidence of the most thorough organization, for all of which Mr. Gaudaur and his efficient staff received the highest praise.

Mr. W. A. Wei occupied the head of the tables with the guest of the evening, Mr. McCrossan, to his right, Mr. Carmichael occupied the vice-chair.

The toasts were limited to "the King," "the guest" and "the craft" to all of which able responses were made. Mr. Deacon's address was a very

Bird-Shot
For Tiger.

No use to hunt tigers with bird-shot. It doesn't hurt the tiger any and it's awfully risky for you.

Consumption is a tiger among diseases. It is stealthy —but once started it rapidly eats up the flesh and destroys the life. No use to go hunting it with ordinary food and medicine. That's only bird-shot.
 It still advances. Good heavy charges of Scott's Emulsion will stop the advance. The disease feels that.

Scott's Emulsion makes the body strong to resist. It soothes and toughens the lungs and sustains the strength until the disease wears itself out.

Success Attends Fiecht's Comic Players.

Fiecht's players came, he saw, he conquered one of the largest and most enthusiastic audience that has thronged the Occidental theatre since its erection and for three solid hours the house was in an uproar of laughter from the very moment of the opening act until the closing scene. The play was fraught with funny situations, more delicate appearances, most tempting it was possible to secure.

 There seemed to be nothing missing which Mr. Gaudaur and his efficient

 Mr. Carmichael occupied the vice-chair.

The toasts were limited to "the King," "the guest" and "the fruit," to all of which able responses were made.

Mr. Deacon's address was a general one of lot of able efforts. This gentleman appears at his best as an after dinner speaker for he is brim-full of a humor which is infectious.
 Messrs. Scharr, Currie, Robertson, and others also made apt and witty speeches, through all of which ran a tinge of regret at the departure of Mr.
 McCrossan. Messrs. C. H. Carpenter, H. Sutherland, W. Robertson, G.
 W. Smith contributed a number of solos. Mr. Smith makes an ideal entertainer for an occasion of this kind. He has a large store of comic songs which he is able to sing with the best effect.
 Towards the close, someone whispered that the chairman could if he would produce wonderful sounds from five cents worth of tin, and of course he had to respond. The effect was electrical and the music the most talked of the evening. He surprised even the select few who had some knowledge of his musical ability.

An event of more than ordinary interest was the presentation to Mr. Mc-Crossan by the chairman of a watch chain and locket on behalf of the Masonic brethren of Rat Portage.

In doing so Mr. Weir made a neat speech, expressing the regret of the assembled at the departure of the guest. Mr. McCrossan replied in a short address, thanking the donors for their beautiful mark of esteem, assuring them that Rat Portage would have his tenderest recollections.
 Mr. and Mrs. McCrossan leave on black and is feeding the aboriginal life and is prepared to do so. If it, his brain loses its best activities, his hand, his cunning; and everyone who is suspicious of the man who kills away in the least degree. And it is because of the growth of public opinion in this direction that the real problem in regard to the use of intoxicants and all kinds of narcotics will be accomplished. Legislation will not do it, every boy and every man and every woman must come to see that the only rule for them in this world of competition is the abstemious life, as Robert R. puts it. We have heard a great deal of late of the strenuous life, but the abstemious life is still more to the point, and applies to every man and to every woman. With the two together, so much the better.—World.

ITS POCKET IS THE ROAD TO ITS DEPART.

Wisdom dwells in the idea attributed to Cecil Rhodes that the true way for Great Britain to secure United States friendship is to use American products. The United States has a heart and a pocket. The pocket is the key to its heart. A British trifle which tugs the producers of the United States to appropriate the goods will of great Britain would be the most efficient promoter of Anglo-Saxon unity.

Great Britain's open market is the most potent external cause of prosperity in the United States. Increase the difficulties of access to that market and motive is supplied for American appreciation of British good-will. At present the British market is easily opened and the United States does not realize its own immense financial influence in the welfare of its best customer.—Toronto Telegram.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The prettiest American girl now feted in Europe is Miss Gladys Denon, of New York. She is but nineteen, yet all the courts are agitated over her, and the Crown Prince of Germany became so infatuated that his father, the Emperor, was compelled to interfere to prevent complications.

The St. Paul Globe says: Canada brought in $10,000 worth of American merchandise in excess of her exports to the United States. This peaceful neighbor is worth more to the country than the light of the Philippines, for which we are shedding blood and expending millions.

The eleventh annual report of the Alaska Trade Well Gold Mining company, which was made public, shows that the value of a low grade free milling gold property when the plant upon it is sufficiently large to handle the ore, is five times as large to handle the ore, in the case of gold. The property of this company upon Douglas Island, Alaska, and its report of operations for the year ending May 15, 1901, has just been made public. During the year there were 457,900 tons of ore crushed, an average of 2.24 tons every 24 hours.

A FAILURE.

You say your life is a failure. And I ponder the words you say. As I gaze on your deep brow care-lined And your dark hair streaked with grey.

For I see in your eyes new-troubled, Earnestly bent on life. That the soul knows naught of failure As it looks forth strong and free.

You say your life is a failure! What, then, do the words convey? I always thought that failure Should be feared until to-day.

But I see down the years swift passing A man in his earnest youth Turn aside from the mad world's honors To bow at the shrine of truth.

With his deep brow reverent, thoughtful, Aglow with the ages' light. And his pained heart tremulous yearning Adfume with his new-found right.

The unquenched fire-seed burning Through the frost of the night of time That he brings again to his brothers And offers in faith sublime.

Had they met not his prayers with laughter, Nor trampled his pearls again. This earth were indeed the Eden It never has been too men.

We give our praise to the martyr, Who died when his faith was aflame; We bow to his tomb as an altar, And worship the sound of his name.

But a greater than he is the brother, Through the chill of the frost of the years, Who sowed the seed of the faithful And reaps but a harvest of tears.—Lloyd Anthony.

A TOAST.

To Gilbert Parker, M.P.

Once more you come to tread the well-loved heath. Once more to cross home's threshold—shadow'd now. The alien laurel gleams at your brow; But something more than Act's unfading wreath Inform your eyes—a light Fate doth breathe.

The Song of Destiny who shall endow The waking years and pure and clear by snow. A talismanic light erstwhile in darkness sheath.

We watched you from life's testy stone release The deathless form of Beauty watch-ed you take The Staff of State, with fine prophetic ease. For this our yearning pride is stirred to make Your welcome brave—yet 'tis the cup's rime foam Whose welcome is—Good comrades, welcome home.—Joseph Nevill Dingle.

The Term "Infantry."

The term "infantry" was first used by the Spaniards in the wars with the Moors to designate the foot-soldiers of a royal prince or gentleman. It was extended to the entire body of foot soldiers, and finally adopted throughout Europe.

A Canadian Freight Anomaly.

Some curious anomalies exist in connection with freights in Canada, as elsewhere. One of these is that a barrel of apples has to bear a higher freight rate than a barrel of flour, the former sent from London, Ontario, to Liverpool, costing about 50 per cent. to 100 per cent. more than a barrel of the latter.—London Freight Grower.

DOAN'S Kidney Pills

Now on the first sign of Backache and is able to follow his trade with comfort and profit.

"I have had kidney and urinary troubles for more than three years with severe pain in the small of my back and in both sides. I could not sleep without difficulty, and I had severe neuralgic pain in both temples. Seeing the advertisement of Doan's Kidney Pills, I got a box. They have given me much relief, removing the pain from the back and sides, and banishing the neuralgic pains from my head. The urinary difficulty is now entirely gone. I feel fresh and vigorous in the mornings, and am much stronger in every way since taking these pills." CLARENCE E. SADDY, Carpenter and Builder, Trouton, Ont.

A Strong Statement.
When a mother puts a thing emphatically it is because she knows what she is talking about. Mrs. J. E. Harrison, Hastings, Ont., says: "I have used Baby's Own Tablets in our house for over a year, and I can say that they are all that is claimed for them."

Strong Endorsement.
Mrs. Walter Brown, Milby, Ont., says: "I have never used any medicine for baby that did him as much good as Baby's Own Tablets. I would not be without them."

A Mother's Comfort.
"I have found Baby's Own Tablets the best medicine for children of all ages," writes Mrs. H. H. Fox, Orange Ridge, Man., "and I would not be without them in the house. They are truly a comfort to baby and mother's friend."

Just The Thing for Baby.
Mrs. Ed. Jones, 55 Christie Street, Ottawa, says: "I have used Baby's Own Tablets and find them just the thing for baby."

James Cooper, a porter at the C.N.R. hotel, Port Arthur, attempted to commit suicide by drinking a quantity of oil of cedar. Cooper is an English "remittance man" and has spent a very Satisfactory Results.

Mrs. Hunt, Dumfries, N. B., says: "I am glad to say that I have used Baby's Own Tablets with satisfactory results."

Free to Mothers.
To every mother of young children who will send to her name and address plainly written on a postal card, we will send free of all charge a valuable little book on the care of infants and young children. This book has been prepared by a physician who has made the ailments of little ones a life study. With the book we will send a free sample of Baby's Own Tablets—the best medicine in the world for the minor ailments of infants and children. Mention the name of this paper and address The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

A Great Help.
"I have found Baby's Own Tablets a great help for my little ones," writes Mrs. James Clarke, 60 Conway Street, Montreal, "and I think so much of them that I would advise mothers to keep them in the house all the time."

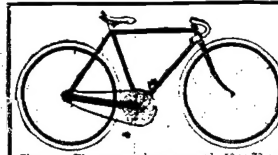

Mr. Jas. Turney of Fort Frances is in town.

An Experienced Mother.
"I am the mother of nine children," writes Mrs. John Hanlan, of Mackey's Station, Ont., "and have had occasion to use much medicine for children, and I can truthfully say I have never found anything to equal Baby's Own Tablets. They are prompt in their action and just the thing for little ones."

A Cure for Constipation.
Many little ones are troubled with constipation and it is a dangerous trouble. Mrs. John McKing, Sylvan Valley, Ont., says: "My baby has been badly troubled with constipation and I have never found any medicine to equal Baby's Own Tablets. They soon put baby all right."

Surprising Results.
Mrs. William Fitzgibbon, Steenburg, Ont., says: "My little baby, six months old, was very sick. I gave him Baby's Own Tablets and was surprised to find the change they made in him in a few hours. I shall always keep the Tablets in the house after this."

In the Streets of Cairo.
One of the most picturesque places in the world is undoubtedly the Egyptian city of Cairo, and not the least of its attractions are the varied and often unusual street cries which assail the ears on all sides. Not only the street musicians who tap their tambourines to the strutting "Alfahs" of the crowd, but the merchants and peddlers, contribute to the chorus.
A fruit seller, basket on head, with grapes and figs, will saunter by singing in a quaint minor "Oh, grapes, oh, grapes."

In the Streets of Cairo.

One of the most picturesque places in the world is undoubtedly the Egyptian city of Cairo, and not the least of its attractions are the varied and often musical street cries which assail the ears on all sides. Not only the street musicians who tap their tambourines to the admiring "Alahs" of the crowd, but the merchants and peddlers, contribute to the chorus.

A fruit seller, basket on head, with grapes and figs, will saunter by singing in a quaint minor: "Oh, grapes, oh, sweet grapes, that are 'larger than doves' eggs and sweeter than new cream." Oh, angels' food, delicious figs, bursting with honey, restorers of health!"

Another street cry which may be heard in the main street of Abbassieh, a suburb, contains the following entic-ing announcement: "Tomorrow, O people, I am going to kill a camel. The doctor says it is young and healthy. Oh, its flesh will be tender as the udder and juicy as lamb. Its price is but 3/4 pinsters (7 1/2 cents) the pound. Do you love the sweet flesh of a camel? Then come early and be satisfied!"

Not the least picturesque figures in the streets are the city police in their neat white and red uniforms in sum-mer and blue serge in winter.

At the Throttle.
Far, far down the track is a dark spot, over which hovers a great cloud. The engineer sees it, hauls out his watch, glances at it, then resumes the business of looking out of the window. He was to meet an eastbound freight at that point. He did not know if the switches were in place; he did not know but the passenger train would dash into that freight and the death of many people follow. There was no way for him to know except that it was the duty of his fellow employees to see that the switches were right. He did not slacken his speed. Rapidly the huge mogul on the sidetrack loomed up. A roar and a dash, and No. 67 flew past the waiting freight, passing within three feet.
